Trauma and Resilience

A free training for Kinship Caregivers and those who support them.

ABOUT THE PRESENTER

Scott Hanauer's professional experience includes residential treatment counseling; parent development training; individual, group and family therapy; program management and oversight of multiple programs. Scott served as the statewide director of out-of-home care at Children's Home Society. Later, Scott served as the Chief Executive Officer of Community Youth Services (CYS) a non-profit social service agency providing integrated network of programs throughout Western Washington. Scott continues to consult with a number of non-profit and for-profit organizations, such as Family Education and Support Services where he serves as Clinical Director. Scott consults with several school districts in Washington State and provides trainings under contract with the University of Washington School of Social Work's Alliance for Child Welfare Excellence.

Scott Hanauer, MA CMHS MAP

Join with other Kinship Caregivers and Navigators across Washington

When? December 19, 2022
Time: 12:00 (Noon)-2:00pm
Cost: FREE
How? Virtual via Zoom: log in: 385 831 072 Password: 124325

Topics Covered:

- Building Resiliency with Caregivers, Children and Youth
- Why is Resiliency important?
- Supporting Caregiver Resiliency
- Positive Childhood Experiences (antidote to ACES).
- Importance of "Sustained Stability"
- Trauma VS Mental Health Lens
- Solution-Focused Strategies for supporting Caregivers
- Importance of "Sparks"
- Caregiver Protective Factors
- Vicarious Trauma
- Stressors and Suicide Prevention

December 19, 2022 Noon- 2:00 PM

- Pre-registration not required
- Questions? Email Trista@FamilyESS.org or call 360-754-7629

Join Us on Zoom Log in 385 831 072
Password 124325

Washington State Department of Social & Health Services
Transforming lives

FESS
FAMILY EDUCATION & SUPPORT SERVICES