

FAMILY EDUCATION AND SUPPORT SERVICES PRESENTS:

Kinship Conversations

Mason County Support Group Meeting

Attention Kinship Caregivers!

Are you raising a relative's child? Join us for an evening of mutual support.

In Washington State, relative caregivers are now rearing over 35,000 children. Raising grandchildren, or a relative's child, can be the most rewarding, heart wrenching, fun and exhausting experience of your life.

Whether you are struggling with custody issues, wondering what community support is available, or just looking to connect with other grandparents or relative caregivers—we can help!

CLASS DESCRIPTION

Join us for monthly conversations at the Squaxin Island Child Development Center with other caregivers about the joys and challenges of parenting a relative's child. Support group meetings are held monthly—third Monday night of every month. Child care is available on-site for ages 3 - 12 years of age.

Topics May Include:

- * Cultural Diversity
- * Special Needs Issues
- * Legislative Issues
