(Register Now! At familyess.org/finance or call 360.754.7629)

In partnership with the Dispute Resolution Center of Thurston County and O'Bea Credit Union, Family Education and Support Services will host free virtual financial education training for local families in need of help in navigating the new financial challenges brought on by the COVID-19 pandemic. This short series taught by a financial professional will provide participants with up-to-date information and useful tools to help families maintain their household budgets, reduce their credit card debt, and rebuild their savings and retirement funds.

Session 1: Evaluating your Budget

(6:00-7:30pm Thursday, October 28th, 2021)

Learn about how COVID-19 might have changed your household spending and how to create to create a practical household budget.

Session 2: Credit Card Debt Management

(6:00-7:30pm Thursday, November 4th, 2021)

Learn about your credit score, how to increase your credit score, and how to create a realistic debt repayment plan.

Session 3: Rebuilding your Savings and Retirement Funds

(6:00-7:30pm Thursday, November 11th, 2021)

Learn about saving strategies, the different types of savings and retirement funds, and how to set up a savings fund for long-term success.

Participants who attend all three classes will receive a certificate of completion.

If you have specific questions about the training, you can contact Jackson Murphy, Resiliency Coordinator at Family Education and Support Services (email: Jackson@familyess.org)
